Went to post at 3:05. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Clawson, on Bowen, saved ground all the way and came strongly through the stretch. Billionaire went around his horses at the stretch turn and fought it out gamely. Remsen was made too much use of in trying to catch the leader in the first half. Sweepstakes was off well in motion and Slack made the most of it. The others were never contenders and are a bad lot.

Hamilton was at a disadvantage and had to shift his whip in the last hundred yards, enabling Bangor to get on even terms and make a dead heat. Merry Prince and Sea Robber were short. Both showed early speed but tired. Bannock was interfered with at the far turn, but did not run his race.

Anice swung wide into stretch and finished strongly on the outside. Della Cee was under restraint to the stretch turn but she hung when it came to a drive. Zenaide was in a pocket to the quarter post and quit badly in the run home. Mudder ran in blinkers and was never a contender. Quite Right was always outrun.

The Amazon and Purifactor were slow to get to going, but both were coming strongly at the end. Gold Lack and Jamaica were tired out in pacemaking.
